

Lake Buhi

Address: Camarines Sur

Description: Home to the record-holding sinarapan (Mistichthys luzonensis), the world's smallest food fish, Lake Buhi's conservation importance addresses the threatened status of the said species (among others) due to aquaculture-related factors, as well as the lake's ecological multiple-use role as provider of water for irrigation, electricity, navigation, and more.

Status: Closed

Foundation for the Philippine Environment
Copyright © 2017 | All rights reserved.