

Mt. Calavite Wildlife Sanctuary

Address: Paluan, Mindoro

Description: MCWS is one of the three main homes of the now-endangered tamaraw (Bubalus mindorensis), along with several more endemic plant and animal species, a notable number of which have also been classified as threatened. As such, the area, situated on the rugged northwestern tip of Mindoro, is well-considered in terms of conservation significance.

Status: Closed

Foundation for the Philippine Environment
Copyright © 2017 | All rights reserved.