

Ilog Hilabangan Watershed Forest Reserve

Address: Central Negros

Description: Located in Central Negros, this reserve is a highly challenged forest ecosystem, having suffered 46% forest cover loss in the past 40 years. Logging, land conversion, and the practice of slash-and-burn has been the primary culprits for this. Recent documented loss of fauna species in different sites within the reserve further emphasize the need for conservation activities.

Status: Closed

Site Profile Summary